TENNESSEE NEWS

CUT TO THE QUICK

FOR BUSY READERS

Dr. John Morris, of Somerville, now at Knoxville as recruiting surgeon, has been ordered to France in June. He is a brother of George Morris, secretary to Senator John K. Shields.

The first section of the Sixth United States infantry regiment from El Paso, ordered to Fort Oglethorpe, arrived at Chattanooga and was sent immediately out to Chickamauga park.

Charles A. Morse, Jr., captain of one of the companies in the University of Tennessee battalion, is in charge of military training at Lincoln Memorial university at Hargrave, during the summer session.

Chancellor Garvin dismissed a petition filed by the state asking that the Chattanooga Southern League Club be enjoined from playing Sunday ball. This action insures Sunday ball in Chattanooga without further interference from the authorities.

Governor Rye appointed S. H. Elliott, of Springfield, and Dr. H. M. A.
Smith, of Knoxville, members of the state board of dental examiners, each to serve for three years. Dr. Elliott succeeds Dr. F. S. Osborne, of Columbia, while Dr. Smith succeeds Dr. W.
H. Richards of Knoxville.

Bud Martin, of Claiborne county, who was in 1910 convicted of murder in the second degree, and sentenced to the penitentiary, has been granted a pardon by Gov. Tom C. Rye. The pardon was recommended by the trial judge, the attorney general and a number of citizens.

University of Tennessee students appointed by Dr. Brown Ayres as second lieutenants in the marine corps, returned from Washington and report a 100 per cent record for the University of Tennessee in physical examinations. All of the students appointed passed the examining board at the marine barracks, at the capital city.

Operating under the rural credit bill, the Roane National Loan association is now in full operation with headquarters in Rockwood. Loans totaling $25,000 have been applied for, and will soon be ready for distribution.
Through this association farmers are offered money on long time loans at low interest.

The executive committee of the Tennessee society, Sons of the American Revolution, has decided to invest the surplus in the treasury in "Liberty Bonds." The surplus in the treasury is considerable, and the committee thought no better use could be made of it, and no safer investment could be found.

A. C. Barry, whose home is at Lebanon Junction, Ky., pleaded guilty of violating the Man white slave act and was sentenced to five months in the Marion County Jail. Barry induced Mrs.
Mattie B. Coulter, his sister-in-law and mother of five small children, to leave her home and accompany him to Memphis, Tenn.

An important real estate deal was transacted when the trustees of the Athens school, University of Chattanooga, bought the farm of Harry Evans, near Athens. It will be used as an experiment station for the agricultural class. A large class studied agricultural problems this year and if the present war does not prevent a larger class will be enrolled next year.

If a military mobilization camp is located in Knoxville all water, lights, and road improvements to the site will be supplied by the city. The commissioners at a conference gave this assurance to a delegation from the Board of Commerce. The Board of Commerce is working hard to get one of the mobilization and maneuvering camps.

Liberal subscriptions to the Liberty loan, the $2,000,000,000 bond issue to be used in carrying on a successful war against Germany and her allies, have been announced by Nashville banks and bankers believe the amount subscribed there will easily reach $1,000,000. The banks are acting independent of the Clearing House association in making their loans.

That the Tennessee Central railroad be offered for sale June 2 at the upset price of $700,000 and that the receiver continue to operate the road and pay no more interest on the prior lien bonds until further orders was the decree of Judge E. T. Sanford at a hearing of the case in Nashville. The receivers were authorized to borrow $20,000 to pay an installment of the lease of the Nashville Terminal company.

Chained to a fallen tree at the scene of his crime, Eli Persons, the negro who confessed he killed Antonette Rap-pal, a young girl, recently, was burned to death by a mob in the country about 10 miles from Memphis. The body was badly mutilated, the head being severed and placed on the roadside nearby, where it remained several hours.
Memphis ministers in resolutions strongly condemned the mob action.

Proof that the old pioneer spirit of Tennessee is not dead, and that quilting parties, husking bees and log rolling would be just as popular now as in the days of yore, is attested to by the fact when Mrs. C. D. Balch, who lives near Newport, recently sent out invitations for a quilting party, fifty-six responded and the result of the day's work was eight completed quilts.
Two rooms of the Balch house and an empty house nearby were utilized for the party.

Numerous complaints made by persons who passed satisfactory physical examinations and have been refused admission to the training camp at Fort Oglethorpe have reached Washington.
In order to ascertain if there had been any discrimination, Senator John K.
Shields and Senator K. D. McKellar together called at the war department and placed the matter before the authorities. As a result they have been assured that there has been every effort to escape the charge of favoritism.

One Red Cross training class is now being conducted in Cleveland and two others are in the process of organization. It is the purpose of these classes to teach girls and young women and have them ready to render "first aid" in any emergency. Should they be needed in the service of their country they will be ready and well equipped for the duties which may befall them; or should explosion, fire or accident occur in Cleveland their trained hand will be a boon to the wounded.

Ernest McCampbell, a young farmer, was killed by lightning and several others injured by a cyclone that swept Sweetwater valley. The damage included destruction of several houses and barns and killing of livestock.

Scores of persons were rendered homeless and loss estimated at $30,000 incurred when flames, fanned by a strong west wind wiped out two blocks in South Memphis destroying the new Mount Zion church eighteen houses and damaging many others. All the property was occupied by negroes.

Judge Martin Fleming announced from the bench of the court that Chattanooga was going to be a clean city by July. He said if anybody thought they could get by with it, he wanted them just to try. He declared that he would play no favorites, that all should be treated alike. This renewal of a promise to stop the liquor traffic was called forth by the appearance of twenty-four liquor cases at the bar of his court, nine for selling, six for procuring, four for storing, and five for transporting.

D. C. Waters, a Cocke county farmer, is a patriot of the first order.
He is a prosperous farmer and last fall he stored many bushels of Irish potatoes. Recently a buyer from the East offered Waters $2.50 a bushel for them.
He declined the offer. Then he notified the neighborhood he had plenty of Irish potatoes for seed and that if any of his neighbors did not have the money to buy seed this spring he would give them potatoes to plant without making any charge. Now "potato patches" are to be found everywhere in the community.

It became known in Washington, D. C. that unprecedented high prices of coal, charged in Knoxville, have come under the scrutiny of the department of justice, and that indictments may follow. Messrs. Anderson, Childs and Todd, assistants to the attorney general, have been investigating the food and fuel prices in every city where people have complained. Since Knoxville has come to the attention of the department, as one city suffering from high prices, legal action may be taken if an investigation justifies.

One company is being organized in Memphis, with a capital stock of $2, 500,000 for the purpose of developing navigation on the Mississippi River and there are indications that other corporations with the same object will be organized within the next few months. River men believe that because of the congested condition of railroads, river navigation will come into its own. There is immense tonnage that might be moved by a water all the way from New Orleans to St.
Paul and along the tributaries of the Mississippi, including the Ohio River and the Mississippi River.

The military spirit of Chattanooga was given another boost when news came from Washington outlining the plans for the building of dormitories and cantonments at Fort Oglethorpe to house part of the conscript army. The news from the capital states that these dormitories will be occupied by 20,000 to 30,000 recruit soldiers, that it would require 4,000 car loads of brick for construction, that temporary quarters would be built for the workmen, estimated between four and five thousand. The dormitories will be 109x43 feet each, and will house an entire company.

Six persons were killed, 32 injured, two dangerously, and a number of houses were blown down at Dyersburg when a tornado struck there Sunday.
The dead are: Mrs. E. D. Turner, Mrs.
G. B. Boswell, Mrs. Elco Baker and three-day-old baby; R. E. Moorsacy and daughter, Mabel. The tornado struck the south end of the town, blowing down 22 houses, three of them churches. According to a report from Tiptonville, six negroes were killed and about 20 persons injured. Many were rendered homeless and property damage running into the hundreds of thousands resulted in a series of storms which swept through Eastern Arkansas and Western Tennessee.

James Leslie Darcy, champion heavyweight of Australia and considered by those who saw him in action to be the greatest fighter since the days of Bob Fitzsimmons, died at a hospital in Memphis. Darcy's death followed a two week's illness, resulting from a complication of diseases, of which pneumonia of the right lung and blood poisoning resulting from an infected tooth and tonsil, were the principal ones. After coming to Memphis over a month ago Darcy enlisted in the United States army. He was to have fought Len Rowlands there before joining the colors, but was taken sick and could not box.
